Re: Briu v. Healthcare Revenue Recovery Group, LLC, et al., Case No.:19-cv-07298-LGS

Dear Judge Schofield,

This office represents plaintiff in the captioned civil matter. This matter is scheduled for an initial pretrial conference on January 23, 2020. The parties jointly respectfully request a 35-day adjournment of the initial conference.

The reason for the adjournment request is that the parties are close to arriving at a settlement of this matter. They are in the process of trying to get certain signatory approvals of the settlement. Defendants' counsel are unable at this time to say exactly when those signatory approvals will be obtained but assure the undersigned that such attempts are currently on-going and approvals are expected in the coming days. Consummation will follow.

It is in order to avoid the unnecessary expenditure of scarce judicial resources and to avoid potentially scuttling the proposed settlement by the expenditure of additional legal time on litigation of the matter, that the parties are respectfully requesting the adjournment. The parties also respectfully request a consequential 28-day extension of the deadline for the filing of the pre-conference materials.

The Court's kind consideration of the foregoing request is greatly appreciated.

Respectfully Submitted,
FAGENSON & PUGLISI, PLLC
